

Communicable Disease Data Sources

---

E-Coli and Campylobacter Data Sources:

Communicable Disease Report Records: Washington State Department of Health, Communicable Disease Epidemiology.

County Population by Age and Sex: Intercensal and Postcensal Estimates of County Population by Age and Sex, Washington State Office of Financial Management, Provisional Series, August 2001.

Pertussis, Hepatitis A, Hepatitis B, Salmonella, and Shigella Data Sources:

Communicable Disease Report Records: Washington State Department of Health, Communicable Disease Epidemiology.

County Population by Age and Sex: Intercensal and Postcensal Estimates of County Population by Age and Sex, Washington State Office of Financial Management, Provisional Series, August 2001.

Centers for Disease Control. (2002). Summary of notifiable diseases---United States, 2000. MMWR, 49(52);6-22.

STD Data Sources:

STD Report Records: Washington State Department of Health, STD/TB Services.

County Population by Age and Sex: Intercensal and Postcensal Estimates of County Population by Age and Sex, Washington State Office of Financial Management, Provisional Series, August 2001.

Centers for Disease Control. (2002). Summary of notifiable diseases---United States, 2000. MMWR, 49(52);6-22.

Tuberculosis Data Source:

Tuberculosis Report Records: Washington State Department of Health, STD/TB Services.

County Population by Age and Sex: Intercensal and Postcensal Estimates of County Population by Age and Sex, Washington State Office of Financial Management, Provisional Series, August 2001.

Centers for Disease Control. (2002). Summary of notifiable diseases---United States, 2000. MMWR, 49(52);6-22.