Stay Healthy Around Animals!

Animals can carry germs that make people sick.

Never eat, drink, or put things in your mouth around animals.

Wash your hands with soap and water right after visiting animals.

Keep strollers, baby bottles, pacifiers, and children’s toys out of animal exhibits.

Older adults, those who are pregnant, and young children are more likely to get sick from animals.

Adapted from CDC CS278112B EH_Animal_Exhibit_2023_07_LML