

Caring is COOL

Community care is a way we can support each other and our community. It focuses on ways people connect with each other, and encourages us to make efforts to act thoughtfully for the benefit of the community and each other.

Virtual Volunteering:

Volunteer Match: volunteermatch.org/virtual-volunteering

Smithsonian Digital Volunteers: si.edu/volunteer/DigitalVolunteers

Catchafire: www.catchafire.org

United Nations Volunteers: <https://www.unv.org/become-online-volunteer>

Zooniverse (“Do Science, Anywhere”): www.zooniverse.org

Points of Light: www.pointsoflight.org/volunteer

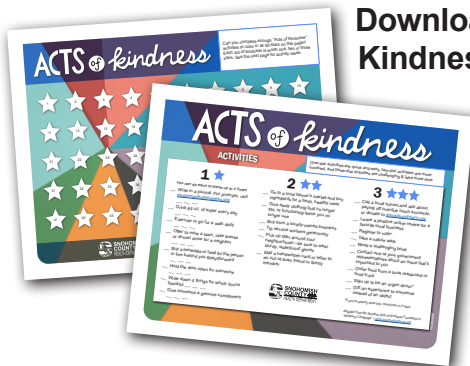

Click-to-Give Websites:

www.greatergood.com/clicktogive/ggc/home

www.freerice.com (answer trivia to donate rice to UN food program)

www.freekibble.com (answer trivia to donate kibble to feed animals)

Acts of Kindness:

Download and print out our “Acts of Kindness” activity sheet, available online at www.snohd.org/activities.

Complete a variety of activities to fill in all 50 stars on the page.

